Article 63 There are two types of general meetings: the annual general meetings and the extraordinary general meetings. Annual general meeting shall be held once every year within six months after the end of the last accounting year.

Extraordinary general meeting shall be held when it is required. The Board shall hold an extraordinary general meeting within two months after the date on which any of the following circumstances occur:

The Board shall convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting responsively after receipt of the aforesaid written request. The aforesaid amount of shareholding is calculated on the day when the shareholders tender the written request.
- (II) If the Board fails to issue a notice of meeting within 30 days after receipt of the aforesaid written request, the shareholders tendering the said request may request the Supervisory Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting.
- (III) If the Supervisory Committee fails to issue a notice of meeting within 30 days after receipt of the aforesaid written request, the shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of shares with voting rights at the meeting to be convened for 90 consecutive days may by themselves convene a meeting within 4 months after the Board receives the said request, and the convening procedure shall to the extent possible be the same as the procedure by which the Board convenes the general meeting.

Where the shareholders convene a meeting because the Board or the Supervisory Committee fails to convene the meeting pursuant to the aforesaid provision, the reasonable expenses incurred shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted from the monies payable by the Company to the defaulting directors or supervisors.

Article 65 When the Company convenes a general meeting, shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the shares of the Company may submit an interim proposal in writing to the Board ten days before the general meeting is held. The Board shall notify other shareholders within two days upon receipt of the proposal, and submit the said interim proposal to the general meeting for deliberation. The contents of the interim proposal shall fall within the functions and powers of the general meeting, and the proposal shall have a clear topic and specific matters on which resolutions are to be made.

Article 66 When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, the date and venue of the meeting and the matters to be considered at the meeting shall be notified to all shareholders 20 days before the meeting; the holding of an extraordinary general meeting shall be notified to all shareholders 15 days prior to the meeting. The date of issue of the notice mentioned herein is the date upon which the Company or the share registry commissioned by the Company serves the relevant notice to the post office.

Save as otherwise provided in the Articles of Association, the notice of the general meeting shall be delivered to the shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote at the general meeting) by courier or per-paid mail to the recipient's address in the share register. For holders of domestic shares, the notice of the general meeting may also be issued by way of announcement.

The announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspaper(s) designated by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council during the period between 20 days to 25 days before the annual general meeting is held or between 15 days to 20 days before the extraordinary general meeting is held. Once the announcement is made, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting.

The notice of the general meeting issued to holders of overseas listed foreign shares may be published through the website designated by Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the Company's website, and once the notice is published, all holders of overseas listed foreign shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting.

Article 67 The general meeting shall not resolve on matters not covered in the notice specified in Articles 65 and 66 of the Articles of Association.

Article 68 The notice of a general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (I) it shall be made in writing;
- (II) it shall specify the time, place and date of the meeting;

- (III) it shall describe the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (IV) it shall provide necessary information and explanations to the shareholders, so as to enable them to make informed decisions on the matters to be discussed. This principle shall apply (but not limited to) when the Company proposes a merger, repurchase of shares, reorganisation of share capital or other restructuring, and it shall provide the specific conditions and contracts (if any) of the transaction under discussions and earnestly explain the cause and result of the transaction;
- (V) it shall disclose the nature and extent of material interests, if any, of any director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management members of the Company in any matter to be discussed; and provide an explanation of the differences, if any, between the way in which the matter to be discussed would affect such director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management members of the Company in his/her capacity as shareholders and the way in which such matter would affect other shareholders of the same class;
- (VI) it shall contain the full text of any special resolutions proposed to be passed at the meeting;
- (VII) it shall contain a conspicuous written statement that the shareholders entitled to attend and vote have the right to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on their behalf and that such proxy is not required to be a shareholder;
- (VIII) it shall state the time and place for the delivery of the power of attorney for the voting proxy for the meeting.

Article 69 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the failure to receive the notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive such notice, shall not invalidate the meeting or the resolutions adopted thereat.

Article 70 Any shareholders entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (who need not be a shareholder or shareholders) as his/her proxies to attend and vote on his/her behalf. Such proxy may exercise the following rights according to his/her entrustment by the shareholder:

- (I) the shareholder's right to speak at the general meeting;
- (II) the right to severally or jointly request to vote by ballot;
- (III) the exercise of voting right by a show of hand or ballot. Where there is more than one proxy, the said proxies shall vote by ballot.

Article 71 The appointment of a proxy by a shareholder shall be in writing and signed by the appointer or the agent authorized by the shareholders in writing; or if the appointer is a legal person, shall be affixed with the legal person's seal or signed by its director or formally authorised agent.

Article 72 The power of attorney for voting shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or such other place as specified in the notice of meeting at least 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote. Where such a power of attorney for voting is signed by a person authorized by the appointer, the power of attorney authorizing signature or other authorization documents shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorization documents shall, together with the power of attorney for voting, be deposited at the Company's domicile or at such other place as specified in the notice of meeting.

Where the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or a person authorized by the Board or other decision-making body shall attend the general meeting of the Company as a representative.

If the shareholder is a Recognized Clearing House (or agent thereof) meeting the definitions in the relevant Hong Kong ordinances formulated from time to time, the said shareholder may authorize one or more persons as he/she deems appropriate to act as his/her proxy at any general meeting or class meeting; however, where several persons are thus authorized, the power of attorney shall clearly state the number and class of the shares represented by each of the persons thus authorized. The power of attorney shall be signed by the persons authorized by the Recognized Clearing House. The person thus authorized may represent the Recognized Clearing House (or agent thereof) in exercising its rights at any meeting (without being required to present share certificate, certified power of attorney and/or further evidence of due authorization) as if that person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 73 Any form issued by the Board of Directors of the Company to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast an affirmative or negative vote and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted during discussions at the meeting. The power of attorney shall specify that in the absence of instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he/she thinks fit.

Save as provided above, the aforesaid power of attorney shall also specify the number of shares to be represented by the proxy, the name of the proxy; whether or not the proxy has any voting right(s); whether or not the proxy has any voting right(s) in respect of interim proposals which may possibly be included in the agenda of the general meeting; and, if the proxy has such voting right(s), specific instructions as to the exercise of those voting rights; the date of issue and validity period. If several persons are appointed as the shareholder's proxies, the power of attorney shall specify the number of shares to be represented by each proxy.

Any proxy attending a general meeting on behalf of a shareholder shall present his/her identity certificate and power of attorney signed by the appointer or the appointer's legal representative, which power of attorney shall specify the date of issue. Where a legal person shareholder appoints its legal representative to attend the meeting, the legal representative shall present his/her identity certificate and the copy of the notarized certified resolutions of the Board or other authorities of the legal person appointing the said legal representative or other certified copy permitted by the Company.

Article 74 If, before voting, the appointer has passed away, lost his/her ability to act, withdrawn the appointment, withdrawn the authorisation to sign the power of attorney, or transferred relevant shares, the vote cast by the proxy in accordance with the power of attorney shall remain valid so long as the Company has not received the written notice regarding such matters before the commencement of relevant meeting.

Article 75 General meetings shall be convened and presided over by the chairman. Where the chairman cannot or does not fulfil the duty thereof, the Board of Directors may designate a director of the Company to convene and preside over the meeting in proxy; if no person is designated to preside over the meeting, the attending shareholders may elect a person to preside over the meeting; if for any reason the shareholders cannot elect a person to preside over the meeting, the shareholder (including proxies thereof) holding the most voting shares among the attending shareholders (except the HKSCC Nominees) shall preside over the meeting.

Where the chairman of the Supervisory Committee cannot or does not fulfil the duty thereof, more than half of the supervisors may jointly elect a supervisor to preside over the meeting.

A general meeting convened by the shareholders themselves shall be presided over by a representative elected by the convener.

Where a general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure which makes it difficult for the general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the general meeting to act as chairman, subject to the approval of more than half of the attending shareholders having the voting rights. If for any reason the shareholders cannot elect a person to preside over the meeting, the shareholder (including proxies thereof) holding the most voting shares among the attending shareholders shall preside over the meeting.

Article 76 Resolutions of a general meeting are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions shall be passed by votes representing more than half of the voting rights held by shareholders (including proxies thereof) attending the general meeting.

Special resolutions shall be passed by votes representing more than two thirds of voting rights held by shareholders (including proxies thereof) attending the general meeting.

The attending shareholders (including proxies thereof) shall declare their affirmative, negative or abstention votes on every issue to be voted on. Abstentions will not be counted when the Company calculates the voting results concerning the said issue.

Article 77 Shareholders (including proxies thereof) who vote at a general meeting shall exercise their voting rights in proportion to the amount of voting shares they represent. Each share carries the right to one vote. However, the Company has no voting right for the shares it holds, and such part of shares shall be excluded from the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders attending the general meeting.

According to applicable laws and regulations and the Main Board Listing Rules, where any shareholder is required to waive his/her voting rights or is restricted to cast only affirmative or negative vote on a certain resolution, any vote cast by the said shareholder or proxy thereof in violation of the relevant provisions or restrictions shall not be counted into the voting results.

The request for voting by ballot may be revoked by the person tendering the request.

Article 79 If the issue required to be voted by ballot relates to election of chairman or termination of meeting, voting by ballot shall be conducted immediately; in respect of other issues required to be voted by ballot, the chairman may decide the time of voting by ballot, and the meeting may proceed to consider other issues, and the voting results shall be deemed as resolutions passed at the said meeting.

Article 80 On a poll, a shareholder (including proxy thereof) entitled to two or more votes needs not cast all his/her votes in the same way of pros, cons or abstention.

Article 81 In case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.

Article 84 If the general meeting requires all the directors, supervisors, the general manager and senior management members of the Company to attend the meeting, they shall attend the meeting. The directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members attending or present at the meeting shall answer or explain inquiries made by shareholders except that the business secrets of the Company are involved and cannot be disclosed at the general meeting.

Article 85 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed pursuant to voting results. His/her decision, which shall be final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Article 86 The method and procedure for nomination of directors and supervisors (excluding employee representative supervisors) to be elected at a general meeting are as follows:

- (I) shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding more than 3% of the outstanding voting shares of the Company may propose in writing director candidates or supervisor candidates who are not employee representatives to the general meeting, but the number of nominees shall comply with the Articles of Association and shall not exceed the number of directors or supervisors to be elected.
